"For two minutes this morning millions of people throughout the world paused in remembrance of the Holocaust. The horrific suffering which occurred and was documented during the darkest years of World War II cannot be denied, nor forgotten. While Holocaust Remembrance Day observes the unchecked cruelty inflicted upon millions of Holocaust victims and survivors, it also puts brutal regimes on notice that we are committed to assuring such inhumanity never be repeated. There is no denying our resolve and shared purpose in defending basic human rights."
